

Lime and Lintel

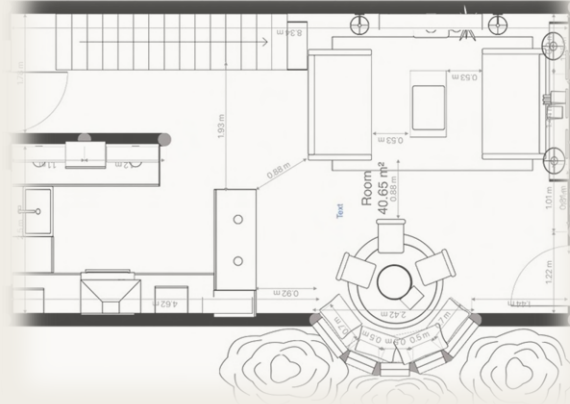

Portfolio of works

Lounge

Full renovation. Initial plans and design drawn up by our in-house Interior designer

Kitchen

Wall cabinets to be replaced with shelving in most areas to make the space feel more open and traditional looking.

Rustic white tiles for the splash back

Bespoke counter/cocktail station

Rustic oak flooring throughout

Existing Island to be a standard depth unit, then pushed out to create a larger kitchen area and a better entry way to the kitchen.

Soft Cream/white kitchen units with antique brass handles/knobs. Wall lights in the same finish Halesworth Shaker style Kitchen - Howdens

Linen Roman blind

Warm whites and Taupe colours

Paneling behind the bed with integrated reading lights. Hanging pendant lights either side.

Heavy linen curtains

Stripped back floor

Back to the wall toilet under the window

Half height Georgian wall paneling.

Bathroom

Limestone floor

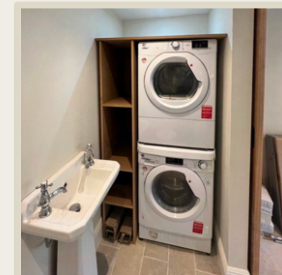

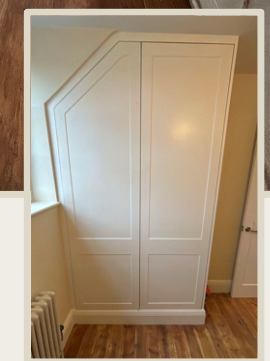

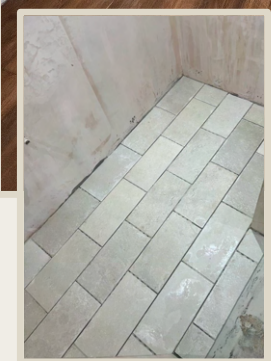

Snug

Stripping out and re-wiring in compliance with current regulation.

Adding the character back into the property

Works complete and house
handed over to the client.

